Questions and answers

How do I know if I am eligible?

If you are employed and paying UK tax you can join Payroll Giving scheme.

Does my employer have to be registered?

Your employer may already be registered for payroll giving; if not contact the Charities Aid Foundation on 01732 520019 and they can help you to arrange this.

How much should I give?

You can choose any amount you want! To give you some idea of what your money can achieve:

- £5 a month can help train an unemployed person to start up own business;
- £15 a month could help provide a community with the basics of life like – food, water, healthcare and education.
- £50 a month could help provide books and other supplies to poor children.

Can I stop at any time?

Yes. Simply inform your payroll department and they will stop your donations the following day. Please also let Islamic Aid know about this, so that we can keep our records up-to-date. E-mail info@islamicaid.org.uk or call 0845 130 8990.

How will I know my donations are being used effectively?

You can see evidence of the work Islamic Aid is supporting around the world on this web site. Also, we can send you our updates, providing in-depth information about Islamic Aid's work in the field.

Why is Wage Aid so valuable to Islamic Aid?

Islamic Aid's commitments to poor communities overseas are long term. Knowing that regular amounts will be coming in helps us plan ahead effectively, keeping our promises to people in need.
